Harold: I still am getting nowhere with the JFK-assassination people at the Ntl. Archives. I wrote to the woman you suggested. The claim is that there was no session with the three criminal psychiatrists -- yet you and I both know that a session was held, I believe in July, 1964. One informed the WC investigators that Oswald must have been thinking of his mother and his estranged spouse when he pulled the trigger. Have you another suggestion as to how I can get those three names?
